TRUST.

It opens doors and keeps them shut.

Leave your worries on the doorstep.

Our services for your home.

If there's a place you can't be too careful, this is it. When you're calling a locksmith for help, you want to feel certain about their reputation and true identity. Our residential and commercial locksmith services offer you a stronger, more reliable presence. The kind of presence you want for keeping your home and office safe. Have no doubts, we aren't new-to-towners dispatched from who-knows-where. Our locksmith services are locally established businesses that meet the high standards of Stanley Security Solutions.

Call on us for urgent needs.

It happens. You're on the outside, but you want to be in. And fast. Whether you've misplaced your keys, or the locks just aren't working right—we respond around-the-clock with lock-out assistance for home, office or business. Our uniformed professionals will arrive quickly and in a clearly identifiable vehicle that's filled with the tools to help.

Stop in for keys, locks and a whole lot more.

Need some keys made? Advice on locksets? Or even a safe?* Visit an owned and operated Stanley Security Solutions store, walk right in and get help from a friendly expert.

STANLEY[®]

Security Solutions

We are trustsmiths. Dependable 24/7. Quick to respond to any situation. And highly skilled in a trade that calls for absolute reliability, honesty and certainty.

When it comes to helping you out of a jam, or protecting what's most important to you, there shouldn't be any questions (at all) about who you can count on and why.

Service comes first. Peace of mind comes always.

Only Stanley Security Solutions locksmith services combine the confidence you feel in using a local service provider (as in a member of your community), with a name that's recognized all over. In fact, our brand goes back well over 150 years. And, no matter what product or service it's attached to today, the name Stanley[®] stands for reliable strength.

In the end, we're proud to be locksmiths. Prouder still to be trustsmiths. To see the difference it makes, call 855.365.2407 or visit stanleylocksmiths.com.

We have a shop in your neighborhood. And a name that's known nationwide.

Stanley Security Solutions offers you the fast response of a mobile fleet alongside the convenience of local walk-in shops. Either way, you get friendly folks to help, as well as services and products that meet a full range of needs for your home, business or properties.*
